Download the latest version of Score! Match and you can! This summer, the 2018 World Cup will be officially launched. Fans of the sport will be reunited with the biggest football concerts on the planet. Besides, the most attractive football matches are going rough. In the process of waiting for exciting matches every week, playing a football match is a great idea. Experience an exciting football game from the publisher's first touch games with a game called Score! Game. Publisher It is also one of the techniques owned by any player. Believe me, but can't have anything you'll enjoy the most enthusiastic atmosphere in this game. Football is always the sport of choice in any country. And score! Matching is not an exception. This game has a completely different gameplay mechanism compared to other popular football games such as Dream League Football or Football Manager Mobile.In game, whenever the ball reaches the foot of your team, the game will slow you down to allow you to choose the next action. Pass to his teammates or continue to go the ball. However, if you hesitate for too long in your decisions, the opponent will automatically ice and take the ball in your foot. Each attack is beautiful or does not depend on creativity in each ball. You can make a lot of bribery improvisation, goals. Terrible goal rescue. Or simply a penalty case. With points! Match, you can do everything. At the beginning of the game, a selection of all unknown players will be given. If you're lucky, you'll get some players you know, but that's a very low percentage. But don't worry, you can buy the players you love, the top stars in the world. The price of the player is the same as the player's value in real life. After each game, you will earn some money. Especially when you win the league you will bring a lot of money use this money to buy the players you want. Besides, the game will always update the cursor as well as new players every day, giving you the perfect experience. Do you want players like Paul Pogba, Ibrahimovic, Alexis Sanchez, Ronaldo, Messi, Neymar, Bakayoko, ... On your team? The number of players varied each player in Score! Match has a different set of indicators. This makes a difference in tactics when you assign different players to different teams. Sure, when you use Messi you can not use the same Peter Cround. Create your own tactics. However, depending on the opponent to give reasonable tactics. You are ready to become a great coach at Score! Game? SScore gameplay! The game has two main modes: playing with artificial intelligence or playing with online players. The difficulty of artificial intelligence will depend on your level in this game. I've met cool artificial intelligence like Barcelona or Arsenal. Combining online features, you have the opportunity to interact with other players around the world. Compete and win, especially the tournament to advance to glory. Show your love on every ball. As you can see, the graphics of points! The game doesn't seem to be on top of the market but still has unique features. The player's actions, as well as the player's actions, are simulated smoothly, in real high-quality 3D graphics. Small details such as shirt, stockings or shoes are also very clear and delicate. With a 3D camera, you can see exciting situations from different angles, giving you a more authentic experience.
